

The Last Supper

Matthew 26:17–30, Mark 14:12–26, Luke 22:14–20

On Holy Thursday, Jesus washed the feet of his apostles and then sat down to eat supper with them. During the meal, he took bread and gave it to the apostles and said, “Take this and eat; it is my body.” They he took a cup of wine and said, “Drink this; it is my blood.”

And he said to his apostles, “Love one another as I love you. Soon I will leave you to go to my Father. But I will send the Holy Spirit, who will live with you and teach you what you need to know.”

Then Jesus and the apostles sang a hymn and prayed together.

The First Easter

Matthew 28:1–10, Mark 16:1–11, Luke 24:1–12, John 20:1–18

On Easter morning, some women went to the tomb where Jesus lay to put spices on his body. Suddenly they remembered that a heavy stone had been rolled in front of the tomb. One woman said, “Who will roll away the stone for us?” But when they got there, it had already been rolled away, and a man in white robes was sitting in the tomb. He said, “Do not be afraid. Jesus has risen from the dead. Tell Peter and the other apostles.” As the women ran off, they saw Jesus and knelt to adore him. Jesus said, “Tell the apostles to wait for me in Galilee.”
